Concrete Regionalism

Concrete Regionalism is a comprehensive guide to the architectural and regional design movements that emerged in the 20th century. This book explores the history of regionalism in architecture and its impact on modern design. It covers the key figures, movements, and seminal works that have shaped the field of architecture.

Modern Architecture in Africa

Modern Architecture in Africa offers a fresh perspective on the role of architecture in African societies. This book examines the influence of modernist architecture in the context of African history and culture. It highlights the contributions of African architects and the ways in which modern architecture has been adapted to the specific needs of African communities.

The EU and World Regionalism

The EU and World Regionalism is a comprehensive analysis of the role of the European Union in regional cooperation. This book explores the evolution of the EU's regional policy and its impact on regional and international cooperation.

Governing Regionalism

Governing Regionalism is a critical examination of the governance of regional cooperation. This book explores the challenges and opportunities of regional governance, and the role of institutions in shaping regional outcomes.

Asian Regionalism

Asian Regionalism is a detailed exploration of the regional cooperation initiatives in the Asia-Pacific region. This book examines the evolution of regional groupings such as ASEAN, and the impact of these groupings on regional development.

Concrete Regionalism

Concrete Regionalism is a comprehensive guide to the architectural and regional design movements that emerged in the 20th century. This book explores the history of regionalism in architecture and its impact on modern design. It covers the key figures, movements, and seminal works that have shaped the field of architecture.

Modern Architecture in Africa

Modern Architecture in Africa offers a fresh perspective on the role of architecture in African societies. This book examines the influence of modernist architecture in the context of African history and culture. It highlights the contributions of African architects and the ways in which modern architecture has been adapted to the specific needs of African communities.

The EU and World Regionalism

The EU and World Regionalism is a comprehensive analysis of the role of the European Union in regional cooperation. This book explores the evolution of the EU's regional policy and its impact on regional and international cooperation.

Governing Regionalism

Governing Regionalism is a critical examination of the governance of regional cooperation. This book explores the challenges and opportunities of regional governance, and the role of institutions in shaping regional outcomes.

Asian Regionalism

Asian Regionalism is a detailed exploration of the regional cooperation initiatives in the Asia-Pacific region. This book examines the evolution of regional groupings such as ASEAN, and the impact of these groupings on regional development.

Concrete Regionalism

Concrete Regionalism is a comprehensive guide to the architectural and regional design movements that emerged in the 20th century. This book explores the history of regionalism in architecture and its impact on modern design. It covers the key figures, movements, and seminal works that have shaped the field of architecture.

Modern Architecture in Africa

Modern Architecture in Africa offers a fresh perspective on the role of architecture in African societies. This book examines the influence of modernist architecture in the context of African history and culture. It highlights the contributions of African architects and the ways in which modern architecture has been adapted to the specific needs of African communities.

The EU and World Regionalism

The EU and World Regionalism is a comprehensive analysis of the role of the European Union in regional cooperation. This book explores the evolution of the EU's regional policy and its impact on regional and international cooperation.

Governing Regionalism

Governing Regionalism is a critical examination of the governance of regional cooperation. This book explores the challenges and opportunities of regional governance, and the role of institutions in shaping regional outcomes.

Asian Regionalism

Asian Regionalism is a detailed exploration of the regional cooperation initiatives in the Asia-Pacific region. This book examines the evolution of regional groupings such as ASEAN, and the impact of these groupings on regional development.

Concrete Regionalism

Concrete Regionalism is a comprehensive guide to the architectural and regional design movements that emerged in the 20th century. This book explores the history of regionalism in architecture and its impact on modern design. It covers the key figures, movements, and seminal works that have shaped the field of architecture.

Modern Architecture in Africa

Modern Architecture in Africa offers a fresh perspective on the role of architecture in African societies. This book examines the influence of modernist architecture in the context of African history and culture. It highlights the contributions of African architects and the ways in which modern architecture has been adapted to the specific needs of African communities.

The EU and World Regionalism

The EU and World Regionalism is a comprehensive analysis of the role of the European Union in regional cooperation. This book explores the evolution of the EU's regional policy and its impact on regional and international cooperation.

Governing Regionalism

Governing Regionalism is a critical examination of the governance of regional cooperation. This book explores the challenges and opportunities of regional governance, and the role of institutions in shaping regional outcomes.

Asian Regionalism

Asian Regionalism is a detailed exploration of the regional cooperation initiatives in the Asia-Pacific region. This book examines the evolution of regional groupings such as ASEAN, and the impact of these groupings on regional development.

Concrete Regionalism

Concrete Regionalism is a comprehensive guide to the architectural and regional design movements that emerged in the 20th century. This book explores the history of regionalism in architecture and its impact on modern design. It covers the key figures, movements, and seminal works that have shaped the field of architecture.

Modern Architecture in Africa

Modern Architecture in Africa offers a fresh perspective on the role of architecture in African societies. This book examines the influence of modernist architecture in the context of African history and culture. It highlights the contributions of African architects and the ways in which modern architecture has been adapted to the specific needs of African communities.

The EU and World Regionalism

The EU and World Regionalism is a comprehensive analysis of the role of the European Union in regional cooperation. This book explores the evolution of the EU's regional policy and its impact on regional and international cooperation.

Governing Regionalism

Governing Regionalism is a critical examination of the governance of regional cooperation. This book explores the challenges and opportunities of regional governance, and the role of institutions in shaping regional outcomes.

Asian Regionalism

Asian Regionalism is a detailed exploration of the regional cooperation initiatives in the Asia-Pacific region. This book examines the evolution of regional groupings such as ASEAN, and the impact of these groupings on regional development.

Concrete Regionalism

Concrete Regionalism is a comprehensive guide to the architectural and regional design movements that emerged in the 20th century. This book explores the history of regionalism in architecture and its impact on modern design. It covers the key figures, movements, and seminal works that have shaped the field of architecture.

Modern Architecture in Africa

Modern Architecture in Africa offers a fresh perspective on the role of architecture in African societies. This book examines the influence of modernist architecture in the context of African history and culture. It highlights the contributions of African architects and the ways in which modern architecture has been adapted to the specific needs of African communities.

The EU and World Regionalism

The EU and World Regionalism is a comprehensive analysis of the role of the European Union in regional cooperation. This book explores the evolution of the EU's regional policy and its impact on regional and international cooperation.

Governing Regionalism

Governing Regionalism is a critical examination of the governance of regional cooperation. This book explores the challenges and opportunities of regional governance, and the role of institutions in shaping regional outcomes.

Asian Regionalism

Asian Regionalism is a detailed exploration of the regional cooperation initiatives in the Asia-Pacific region. This book examines the evolution of regional groupings such as ASEAN, and the impact of these groupings on regional development.
Resilience of Regionalism in Latin America and the Caribbean-Andrés Rivera Puntigliano 2013-03-05 As regionalism becomes an increasingly hot topic, the authors explain why regionalism has been most successful in Latin America as a means of bringing together countries, finding common ground, and working towards a shared future. The book provides a comprehensive analysis of the various forms of regionalism that have emerged in Latin America, including the Caribbean, Central America, Brazil, and Mexico.

Resilience in Regionalism as an International Practice-Thomas A. Cook 2001-05-22 This book explores how regionalism can be an international practice, drawing on examples from around the world to illustrate successful and unsuccessful regional integration efforts. It provides a critical assessment of the role of international organizations in promoting regional cooperation, and offers a set of recommendations for future regional integration efforts.

Building the Post-war World-Nicholas Bullock 2012-02-02 This book examines the building of the post-war world, focusing on the challenges and opportunities that arose in the wake of World War II. It offers a detailed analysis of the post-war reconstruction efforts in Europe and Japan, and provides valuable insights into the processes of rebuilding and reconstruction.

Europe Since 1945-Bernard A. Cook 2001-05-22 This volume offers a comprehensive overview of European history since World War II, covering major events and trends such as the Cold War, the European Economic Community, and the European Union.

Theories of New Regionalism-Peter Katzenstein 1999-04-02 This book presents a critical analysis of the theories of new regionalism, offering a fresh perspective on the nature of regional cooperation and the challenges faced by regional institutions.

Regionalism and Globalism in Southeast Asia-E. Palmquist 2001-01-16 This book examines the impact of regionalism and globalization on Southeast Asia, focusing on the region's unique political, economic, and social dynamics. It offers a comprehensive analysis of the region's history and current developments, providing valuable insights into the future of Southeast Asia.

Sustainable Lina-Annette Condello 2016-08-30 This essential book unravels the link between regional culture, adaptive reuse of existing buildings, and sustainability in the context of the global economic crisis of 1997 and the resulting restructuring of Southeast-Asian regional systems.